

COMBAT INFANTRYMEN'S ASSOCIATION
NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS
Asheville, North Carolina

INFORMATION BROCHURE

The Combat Infantrymen's Association, Inc. is the All Ground Association. We are the first to designate the use of military titles to the Association's officers and non-commissioned officers. We are the first to use the US Army's Table of Organization to designate companies, battalions, regiments, etc.

The purposes for which this Association is organized are:

- a. To bring together all members of the US Army who have earned the CIB.
- b. To work with all duly recognized veteran and civilian groups to create an overall interest in American democracy.
- c. To help veterans with rehabilitation, counseling, personal crises, etc., and to assist their families where possible.
- d. To encourage fellowship and camaraderie among veteran's groups through the Combat Infantrymen's Association newsletter, "The Blue Badge".

To apply for membership, a candidate must furnish CIA National Headquarters documents i.e. DD 214, DD 215, Form #100, WDAGO, 53-54 November 1944 or orders showing that the candidate did in fact earn the CIB. National Headquarters will verify the CIB and return the documents to the candidate.

Effective January 01, 2008 Membership dues for LIFE membership $300.00 for Age 18-40 , $250.00 for Age 41-65 and $150.00 for Age 66 and older. Annual dues are $25.00 per year Membership cards designate LIFE or ANNUAL. New members will be assigned to the company that recruited them. If there is no sponsor, they are assigned to the CIA Company closest to there home . A member may transfer to another Company at anytime at no charge.

CIA National Headquarters is based in Asheville, NC, the "Birthing Place" of the Association. Other Units of the Association are chartered under the auspices of National. As the parent Association, National will have the final decision/conclusion/questions in all matters pertaining to the Combat Infantrymen's Association, Inc.

The CIA Quartermaster has CIA patches, embroidered caps, jackets, polo shirts, sweat shirts, decals, and other memorabilia for sale to the members of the Combat Infantrymen's Association.
