

YOU AMAZE ME

DIANE THIEL

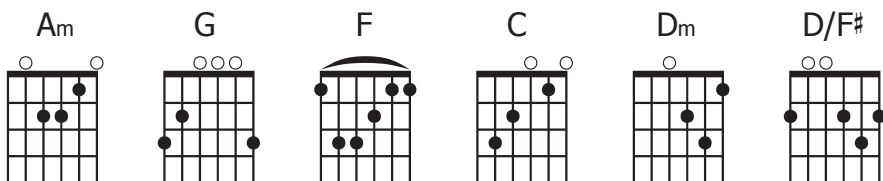

♩=90

Downcast eyes full of disgrace
Look up into Your lovely face
My sinsick soul has found its way
All I can say is You amaze me
You take the old and make it new
You trade the lies for all that's true

And I just take it in and shake my head in wonder
At how You call me friend, this love is like no other
I'll never comprehend this grace that knows no measure
And all that I can say is You amaze me

You breathe upon these brittle bones
They come to life and You amaze me
My heart as dead and cold as stone
Is satisfied, and You amaze me
I wake up to new mercies every day
Promise me that You will always stay

You take the old and make it new
You trade the lies for all that's true
